Important Notices & Reminders:

Electronic Notices Have Gone Live!

Only members enrolled in our free e-Statements will receive e-Notices.

How this will work: Just like when a new e-Statement is available - when an important notice is posted behind Online Banking, you will receive an email indicating that a notice is waiting for review. The email will contain a link to retrieve the important notice from Online Banking. Depending on the type of notice, a tab will appear beside the usual "Monthly Statement" tab on the e-Statement page. The tab will read either "Important Notice" or "Tax Statement" depending on what is being sent to you.

NOTE: Depending on your browser setting, you may have to allow for "pop-ups" which can be easily updated in your browser's Settings, generally under the security tab. In most cases, the browser will have a message box appear asking the user to allow pop-ups.

If you are not enrolled in e-Statements, you will continue to receive all notices via regular U.S. mail. This includes Certificate maturity notices, Tax notices, Negative Share Balance notices, and others. So, if you don't receive mail timely or have reported lost or stolen mail, this new service may be a great reason to now enroll in free e-Statements. This can be done online through our website, by contacting our Member Services Center at 1-800-824-3610, or by visiting any NHCU branch.
